

1812 FATTORIA LA RIVOLTA

Campania | Italy

THE STORY

We're off to the foothills of the inactive volcano, Mount Taburno, in Campania. The family-run estate is known for producing organic, terroir-driven wines that capture the essence of the ancient soils and sun-drenched vineyards of the Taburno area.

Nothing 'Rivolting' about these, a mouth-watering selection of whites, from Falanghina, Fiano and Greco and a couple of reds, one fragrant and gentle, the other an absolute monster. The 1812 range offers wines with incredible depth and character.

Their Fiano is particularly enticing, fresh and vibrant bursting with citrus, pear, and a hint of minerality.
