

MORA & MEMO

Sardinia | Italy

THE STORY

The beautiful estate of Mora & Memo sits high in the hills in the south east of Sardinia just a few kilometres from the sea. Focused on the indigenous clones of Cannonau (Grenache) and Vermentino, the combination of old vineyards with minimal intervention and a delicate touch to the winemaking results in elegant, vibrant and mineral wines. Proximity to the sea, the mistral wind and the limestone soil also add salinity and minerality, as well as mitigating winter temperatures. Taking the reins from her father running this small-scale winery, Elisabetta focuses on producing wines representative of the island terroir, executed in a modern way. We've built a decent following for these, with the quality of the content supported by the coolest bottles!
