PRAGER

Wachau | Austria

THE STORY

Weingut Prager, nestled in the heart of the Wachau Valley has a rich history dating back to 1302. Under the masterful guidance of Toni Bodenstein (son-in-law of Franz Prager), this estate has become synonymous with producing exceptional Rieslings and Grüner Veltliners that truly reflect the unique terroir of the region.

The winery's vineyards, situated on steep, south-facing slopes along the Danube River, benefit from near-perfect viticultural conditions. The combination of warm days and cool nights allows the grapes to develop complex flavours and aromas.

Toni Bodenstein’s meticulous approach to winemaking is evident. He combines traditional techniques and with modern technology to produce wines that are both elegant and powerful. Toni believes natural yeasts are key to showing the subtle differences between vineyards. The wines are characterized by their purity, minerality, and vibrant acidity. Their Grüner Veltliners offer a refreshing and zesty palate, while the Riesling (from 24 different sites) showcases a delicate balance of fruit and floral notes. The estate's flagship wines, such as the Achleiten Grüner Veltliner and the Riesling Smaragd, are highly sought-after worldwide. No wonder he’s currently one of the most revered winemakers in Austria.
